

Economics of Globalisation

Selected Readings

Paul Dunne
School of Economics
UWE

19/11/2003

This session will consider globalisation with a particular focus on economic globalisation. It will consider the historical context and the theoretical underpinnings, and the implications for developing countries.

General Texts:

Todaro, MP and Smith, SC (2003) "Economic Development", Pearson.

Thirwall, AP (2003) "Growth and Development", Palgrave.

Held, David, Anthony McGrew, David Goldblatt and Jonathan Perraton (1999) "Global Transformations", Polity Press.

Held, David, Anthony McGrew(2001) "The Global Transformations Reader", Polity Press.

Hirst and Thompson (1996) "Globalisation in Question", Polity Press (new edition available).

Other Texts:

Archibugi and Michie (1997) "Technology, Globalisation and Economic Performance", Cambridge University Press.

Castells, Manuel (1996) "The Rise of the Network Society", Blackwell

Chang, Ha-Joon (ed) "Rethinking Development Economics", Anthem Press.

Kaldor, Mary (1999) "New and Old Wars: Organised Violence in a Global Era", Polity Press.

Some Interesting Sites:

Globalisation links page:

<http://students.washington.edu/wchung/globalization.html>

Polity Press Resources:

<http://www.polity.co.uk/sociology/default.asp>

The Centre for the Study of Global governance

<http://www.lse.ac.uk/Depts/global/>

Centre for International Education site

<http://www.uwm.edu/Dept/CIE/Resources/globalization/globalgen.html>

Global Dimensions library LSE

<http://www.lse.ac.uk/collections/globalDimensionsLibrary/overview.htm>

International Forum on Globalisation:

<http://www.ifg.org/>